DETAILED ACTION

Reissue Applications

Cancellation of claims 7, 10, 13, 14, 17, 24, 25, 29, 30, 44 and 46-48 has been entered.

Claims 1-6, 8, 9, 11, 12, 15, 16, 18-23, 26-28, 31-43, 45 and 49-62 are pending in the instant application.

Claims 8, 9, 11, 12, 15, 16, 18-23, 26-28, 31-43, 45 and 49-62 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 251 as being an improper recapture of broadened claimed subject matter surrendered in the application for the patent upon which the present reissue is based. See Pannu v. Storz Instruments Inc., 258 F.3d 1366, 59 USPQ2d 1597 (Fed. Cir. 2001); Hester Industries, Inc. v. Stein, Inc., 142 F.3d 1472, 46 USPQ2d 1641 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Clement, 131 F.3d 1464, 45 USPQ2d 1161 (Fed. Cir. 1997); Ball Corp. v. United States, 729 F.2d 1429, 1436, 221 USPQ 289, 295 (Fed. Cir. 1984). A broadening aspect is present in the reissue which was not present in the application for patent. The record of the application for the patent shows that the broadening aspect (in the reissue) relates to subject matter that applicant previously surrendered during the prosecution of the application. Accordingly, the narrow scope of the claims in the patent was not an error within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. 251, and the broader scope surrendered in the application for the patent cannot be recaptured by the filing of the present reissue application.

In the amendment filed June 7, 1995, applicant amended patent claims 137 and 144 from their original form by the addition of the recitation "and in contact therewith" to overcome the rejection thereof, furthermore, applicant argued that the recitation distinguishes the claimed invention over the prior art. Thus, omission from the claims pending in the reissue application of a recitation or indication that the semiconductor layer (currently claimed as "a layer along a side of the insulating layer") is in contact with both electrodes is considered an attempt to recapture subject matter that was previously surrendered.

Moreover, if the omitted limitation is replaced by another limitation that is not related to the subject matter previously surrendered by applicant, recapture exist, even though the replacement limitation is a material (narrowing) limitation, and even where the replacement limitation defines the claims over the prior art. Note that in Hester v. Stein, Inc., 46 USPQ2d 1641 (Fed. Cir. 1998), the court held that the recapture rule can be triggered by argument alone.

Thus, claims 8, 9, 11, 12, 15, 16, 18-23, 26-28, 31-43, 45 and 49-62 are rejected as being an improper recapture of broadened claimed subject matter surrendered in the application for the patent upon which the present reissue is based.
